

Lesson 8: The US Culture (Answer key)

Activity 3: Position of Adverbs

Step 3: Quiz

1 / 11

Which sentence is correct?

Fortunately, his team won the game.

His team fortunately won the game.

His team won fortunately the game.

rowpixel

2 / 11

Which sentence is correct?

He liked a lot the game last night.

He liked the game a lot last night.

He liked last night the game a lot.

rowpixel

3 / 11

Which sentence is NOT correct?

I sometimes play baseball.

Sometimes I play baseball.

I play baseball sometimes.

rowpixel

4 / 11

Which sentence is correct?

She eats pizza usually on Sunday.

She eats usually pizza on Sunday.

She usually eats pizza on Sunday.

rowpixel

5 / 11

Which sentence is correct?

Obviously, you can be never sure of what will happen.

Obviously, you can never be sure of what will happen.

You can obviously be never sure of what will happen.

rowpixel

6 / 11

Which sentence is NOT correct?

I ate my breakfast quickly and went out.

I ate quickly my breakfast and went out.

I quickly ate my breakfast and went out.

rowpixel

7 / 11

Which sentence is correct?

Our team are playing badly and will probably lose.

Our team are badly playing and will probably lose.

Our team are badly playing and probably will lose.

rowpixel

8 / 11

Which sentence is correct?

We were playing all night quietly in our room.

We were eating in our room quietly all night.

We were eating quietly in our room all night.

rowpixel

9 / 11

Which sentence is NOT correct?

Last monday, she arrived late.

She arrived late last monday.

She arrived last monday late.

rowpixel

10 / 11

Which sentence is correct?

I barely could see you in the dark.

I could see you badly in the dark.

I could barely see you in the dark.

rowpixel

Which sentence is correct?

Did you learn a lot today at school?

Did you learn a lot today at school?

Did you learn today a lot at school?

